NARRATIVE:

Taylor, a documented gang member, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include multiple robberies, violation of parole, failure to appear, possession of narcotics and controlled substances, lewd conduct and loitering, possession of marijuana for sale, transporting and selling narcotic controlled substances, solicit lewd acts upon a minor, and trespassing . He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a five (5) year term for transport/sales of narcotic controlled substances. Taylor was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 11, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in April 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Taylor qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for the charge of transport/sales of narcotic controlled substances is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang member status, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
